Yes, he made a similar comment to me. And the land bank folks know that most municipalities don't want to pay to acquire property. Perhaps Marc is used to acquiring properties from the land bank with Zero Down. We shall see.

I talked to Hatton yesterday about the PPA. He suggested that the Land Bank wanted $$ from the City for the purchase. He didn't seem to like that idea at all.

I sent this to COK and discussed it with Marc Hatton at our 6/8 work group meeting. Marc didn't have many questions about how the City would work to acquire the Panelyte property.

Let me know if you have questions.
